- It is the responsibility of the student to continuously audit his/her program for successful completion of requirements.

The College of Business at Oregon State University-Cascades Campus is a student-centered learning environment that provides students with the professional preparation necessary for successful careers in modern business and management. The curriculum is designed to provide you with the personal and professional skills needed to further an organization's goals and objectives. Emphasis is placed not only upon the concepts and analytical techniques of business decision-making, but also upon the obligations and opportunities of business people for effective service to society. With courses offered in the School of Commerce in 1908, OSU was one of the first schools in the United States to provide a business curriculum. The rich heritage of business education at OSU continues today. The undergraduate program in business is accredited by AACSB - The International Association for Management Education.
