The Liberal Studies major is a planned program built around a theme. The theme must include course work in two or more College of Liberal Arts departments. The program of study includes:

1. All classes must be from departments in the College of Liberal Arts,
2. A minimum of 45 credits,
3. At least 27 upper division credits,
4. A writing intensive course (WIC) from one of the departments selected for study,
5. A 2.3 or better cumulative GPA in Liberal Studies courses,
6. A 3 page essay, written by the student, which defines the major,
7. A Plan of Study listing the classes to be taken, and
8. The Plan of Study must be approved by the end of your second term at OSU-Cascades. Substitutions within the approved Plan of Study can be made in due to curriculum and faculty changes. These changes must be approved by your advisor.
