

A Good Start: Educating Lawyers for the Public Good

Misperceptions about lawyers are common. The truth about lawyers is that many of them dedicate their lives to the public good. In this talk, Dean Margie Paris will talk about her own life and legal career, as well as about the good work that lawyers do in Oregon and elsewhere, and about how legal education at the UO prepares lawyers to serve the public.

Dr. Margie Paris

- Professor, School of Law University of Oregon
- J.D. cum laude, Northwestern University School of Law
- B.A. Northwestern University
- Constitutional Criminal Procedure (2d ed., Foundation Press 2003)

~COLLOQUIUM~

Friday, February 22, 2008

3:00 p.m. in Boyle 155, COCC Campus

Presented by Dr. Margie Paris

Dean, School of Law
University of Oregon

UNIVERSITY
OF OREGON

UO & COCC FRIDAY DISTINGUISHED LECTURE SERIES

IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT GAIL MERYDITH 617-4660

