

What can a BS in Natural Resources prepare you for?

1. Work in Government Agencies including:
Natural Resources Conservation Service      Bureau of Reclamation
USDA/Forest Service                              Bureau of Land Management
Army Corps of Engineers                          ODFW
Oregon DEQ    USEPA
2. Work in Resource Management Consulting Firms (private) and for non-profit organizations (e.g., The Nature Conservancy, Oregon Cattlemen's Association, Oregon Natural Desert Association)
3. Graduate education: a variety of graduate programs including:
MAT and other teacher training
Law Schools
MS or PHD Programs in many fields
4. Peace Corps
5. Teach at or administer outdoor natural history centers; serve as a watershed coordinator; resource/environmental journalism

Recent Job Announcements Relevant to Natural Resources B.S. Degree

1. Field Botanist for Consulting firms or University research projects
2. Naturalist
3. Natural Resources Conservation Service (20 positions in Oregon in 2002)
4. Science Instructors at a variety of Science summer camps for kids
5. Environmental Educator with National Wildlife Federation or other organizations
6. Watershed Coordinator with several Oregon Soil and Water Conservation District
7. Career Experience program positions with National Wildlife Refuges
8. Project manager with 'The Trust for Public Land'
9. Dept of Game, Fish and Parks program specialist
10. Wetlands Ecologist
11. Geographic Information System specialist
12. Environmental/Natural History education specialist

Book: The Complete Guide to Environmental Careers in the 21st Century. Environmental Careers Organization. 1999. Island Press. 463 pp.

Web Sites: <http://eco.org>      Environmental Careers Organization
<http://208.200.8.6:80/jobseeker/>      Job Seeker
<http://www.oregonjobs.org/>      State of Oregon
<http://jsearch.usajobs.opm.gov/>      OPM (federal jobs)
<http://nature.org/>      The Nature Conservancy