Cascades Adventures - Spring Break Mt. Shasta Snowriding Trip

March 28 - April 1

Three days on Mt. Shasta's southern side will provide ample opportunities for carving through deep Northern California snow. This is an intermediate/expert riding trip that will be camped at the base of Avalanche Gulch to explore the terrain of Mt. Shasta. The main focus for this trip will be to ride, but will also include field work for avalanche stability and decision making. Please contact Tim Peterson to sign up or for more details.

Cascades Adventures also has an ongoing schedule of events for March including Avalanche Awareness, Snowpack reporting, Backcountry Snowriding and a Snowshoe Hike

Associated Students of Cascades Campus - ASCC to begin in fall 2007!

A student government body will be officially launched on our campus this fall. We are looking for continuing students who are interested in the following paid positions: President, Vice-President, Secretary Treasurer, and Activities Coordinator. Watch for the application forms soon. Selection will be made in spring term. Contact Jacquie Coe if you are interested.

De-Stress During Dead Week

FREE coffee and other de-stressing aids (hopefully massages!) will be available in the Cascades Hall atrium during Dead Week (March 12-16).

Watch for it & don't worry about those final projects & exams.

Wondering What to Do with Your Liberal Arts Major?

Gain work experience abroad! Why not participate in an IE3 Global Internship for 1-2 terms while you are still a student and gain professional experience doing something exciting. Each academic credit, while you build your resume and your future!
