2008-2009 Advising Guide for Political Science Minor

Important Numbers:

- 27 credits of political science, of which at least 18 must be upper division.
- No more than 6 credits from PS 401-PS 406, or PS 408-PS 410 may be applied to the minor.

Important Notes:

- Not all the courses listed are offered each term. Check current schedule for availability.
- It is the student's responsibility to make certain that all prerequisites are met or instructor permission is granted for courses that require one or both of these conditions.
- It is the responsibility of the student to continuously audit his/her program for successful completion of requirements.

Political Science Minor: A Degree Overview

The Department of Political Science at OSU in Corvallis offers course work leading to a political science major in several fields including: American politics, public policy, public law, public administration, political theory, state and local government, international relations, and comparative politics (for example, Asian Politics, Latin America, Western Europe, countries of the former Soviet Union). An undergraduate minor is available at the OSU-Cascades Campus.

Either directly, or after graduate study, political science graduates pursue degrees in law, foreign service, public management (all levels of government), policy analysis, international organizations, journalism, university teaching, research, political office and -- as with many other liberal arts graduates -- in business.
